The Freedom Area Educational Foundation will hold its 12th annual Hall of Fame Banquet on September 28, 2019, at The Columbian Room, 250 Swinderman Road - Wexford, PA. In past years, the Foundation has been able to increase its scholarship funding to graduating seniors and finance teacher grants, affording enhanced opportunities within the classrooms.

This year's Hall of Fame class includes five distinguished inductees; Jack Linn (posthumously), Aaron Rape, Andrew Rape, Sharon Smith Ribner, and Ronald Vodenichar.

The evening's events will include a full-course dinner, raffles, recognition of the 2019 student scholarship recipients, and the induction of the 2019 FAEF Hall of Fame Class.

The Freedom Area Educational Foundation is a 501 (c) 3 corporation created to enhance and enrich the quality of the educational experience and extracurricular activities within the district, beyond what is typically expected of taxpayer funding. Proceeds from the Hall of Fame Banquet and program will be used primarily for scholarships for Freedom Area students, teacher grants, and additional support to the Freedom Area School District facilities.
